

Library Guide

for members of staff

GETTING STARTED

Welcome to the University of Sunderland in London Library. We are here to help you in any way we can to support your teaching and research.

Your library registration is completed automatically when you join the University so there is no need to join the library separately.

LIBRARY FACILITIES

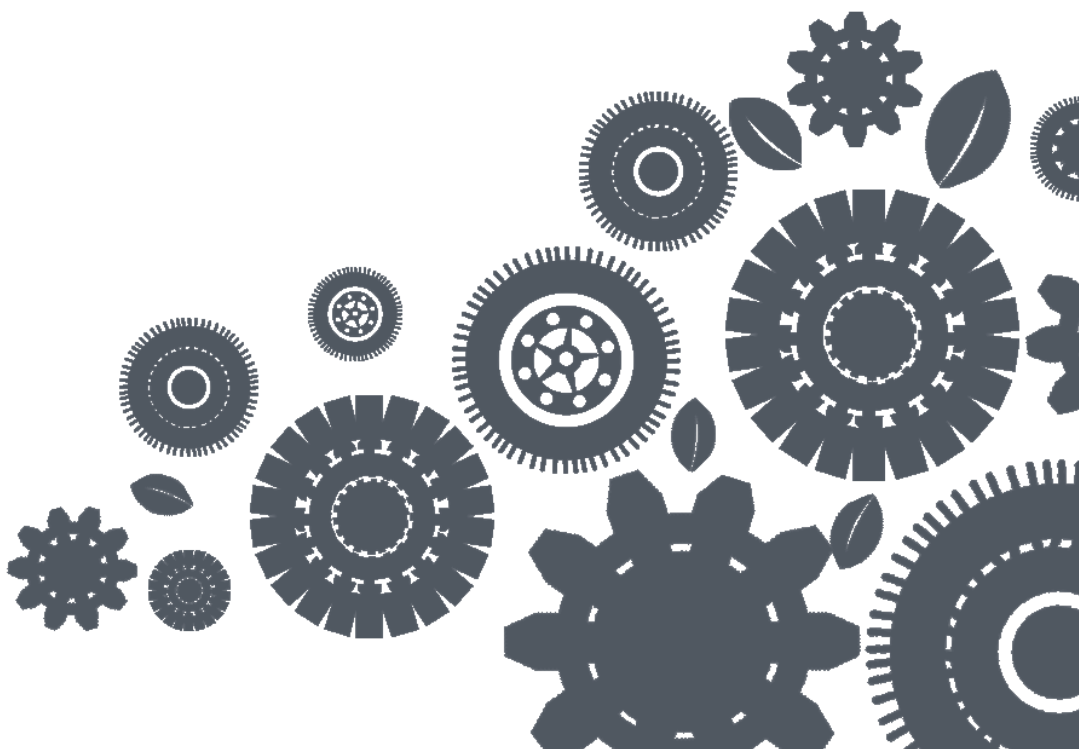

The Library provides a welcoming and practical environment for study and research. It is located on the first floor and offers a quiet study area, computers with internet access, printing, scanning and photocopying facilities.

PRINT & ONLINE LIBRARY RESOURCES

We have a wide range of library resources available to you on campus and online.

Our Library print collection covers the following subject areas:

- Accounting and Finance
- Business Management
- Economics
- English Language
- Research and Study Skills
- Human Resource Management
- Marketing
- Nursing
- Tourism and Hospitality Management

We provide a wide range of online services and electronic resources you can access on- and off-campus.

- Library Catalogue will help you locate or reserve books in the library, and read thousands of e-books online.
- My Library Account allows you to manage your loans and reservations, renew books and pay fines online.
- Discover gives you access to most reliable, up-to-date academic and industry publications such as electronic journals, magazines, reviews, reports and conference proceedings.
- My Module Resources is our online reading lists system that includes links to resources for your subject area.

HOW WE CAN HELP

In addition to services in the Library, we offer a range of teaching and learning support for staff and students in classroom settings and online environment.

A wide variety of skills material is available from our website. We deliver a number of sessions developed to improve information literacy skills, support your teaching and students' academic progress. These sessions include:

- Guidance on subject specific resources
- Help with online library services and electronic resources
- Referencing and bibliographies
- One-to-one sessions tailored to specific needs

OUR PROMISE

We are always here to support your teaching and help your students working in partnership with you.
